Three more are scheduled for next week. Thank you to all the teachers for hosting these meetings and for the Teaching Assistants for looking after their classes while the meetings take place.

All children should bring in a contribution of food to donate (one item per child, please). This will be passed on to the Godalming Food Bank, so non-perishable items such as teabags, biscuits, rice, pasta and tinned foods are best. The children will be singing Harvest songs, saying a prayer and listening to James in St John's Church. Thank you in advance for these kind contributions. <hr/> Grandparents' Tea Parties - Cancelled Our first Whole School Topic this year is My Family. As our Wow Factor for this topic, we had planned a series of Grandparents' Tea Parties in October. Due to the increase in covid cases locally, these will no longer take place. Please do apologise to any relatives who were looking forward to visiting. Each class will still bake biscuits or cakes and will bring an item home to give to someone special in their family.
Goodbye and Good Luck, Lucy Birch Lucy will be moving on to Loseley Fields School at the end of next week. She has worked at Farncombe for five years, supporting learning in Lime Class, Sycamore and Oak. Lucy is also our staff governor and has played an important part in the life of the governing body. We all wish Lucy well as she moves on.	SIAMS Inspection We are due to be inspected as a church school this term. The inspector will visit for one day to see our vision in action and make judgements on how effective our practice is in school. As part of the visit, it would be ideal if the inspector could speak briefly with a small group of parents. If you would like to volunteer to share a cup of coffee and talk about your child's experience of nurture and care in school, please speak to the school office. Thank you in advance.
